

Call for Proposals: The 2023 Annual Conference of the Chinese Language Teachers Association, USA (Notice No. 1, 8/18/2022)

CLTA

Washington, D.C. 2023 Conference Date: March 31 to April 2

Conference Site: Hilton Hotel at Washington Dulles Airport

The Chinese Language Teachers Association - USA (CLTA-USA) plans to hold its 2023 Annual Conference (a fully in-person conference) from March 31 to April 2, 2023 in Washington D.C.. The annual conference aims to provide a platform for Chinese teachers, scholars and school administrators to exchange teaching experience, and share the cutting-edge research finding of Chinese language acquisition, pedagogy, assessment and/or instructional technology. Representatives of the Regional Associations will also report their best practices and development plans with support from CLTA. In addition, the conference committee will organize workshops and roundtables during the annual conference. We sincerely invite colleagues from all over the world (including non-CLTA-USA members) to participate in the 2023 annual conference to exchange experiences and engage in meaningful discussions.

Proposal Submission Deadline: October 15, 2022, 11:59 pm (Eastern Time)

Proposal Submission Website: https://cmt3.research.microsoft.com/CLTA2023

Proposal Submission Policies:

- Submissions are welcome from CLTA members as well as non-members, and from scholars based inside and outside the United States. Graduate students are also welcomed to submit.
- Proposals, written in either English or Chinese, are acceptable.
- Submissions should fall into one of the three categories and be clearly labeled (i.e., individual papers, panels, technical demonstrations, see below for more detailed descriptions).
- Each individual can submit only one proposal as a single or first author, across all three proposal types. The same individual may be listed as a co-author in a second proposal, appearing in a maximum of two proposals.
- If one proposal has multiple authors/presenters, information of all authors/presenters should be included during the proposal submission.

Proposal Types:

CLTA 2023 accepts three types of proposals: individual papers, panels, technique demonstrations. Please select the appropriate category when submitting your proposal online. Additional requirements of proposal submission are as follows:

1. Individual Papers. This category is for proposals to present empirical research findings for an eighteen-minute session (including 5 minutes for Q&A). The proposal should include:

- (1) an abstract that does not exceed 300 English words or 450 Chinese characters, and (2) a summary that does not exceed 50 English words or 75 Chinese characters.
- 2. Panels. This category is for a 55-minute panel comprised with three or four presentations on a common theme. The presentations can be related to empirical studies or explore issues on theory and practice. Each panel must have a lead presenter responsible for submitting the panel proposal. The proposal must include: (1) an overarching title for the panel and titles of individual presentations, (2) an abstract that does not exceed 500 English words or 750 Chinese characters, and (3) a summary that does not exceed 80 English words or 120 Chinese characters.
- 3. Technique Demonstrations. This category is for proposals to present a demonstration to share with colleagues interesting and effective teaching activities in an eight-minute session. The demonstration should focus on a language skill, a linguistic construction/lexical item, or any other clearly defined learning objective. The proposal should include: (1) the name of the demonstrated activity (title), (2) an abstract that does not exceed 100 English words or 150 Chinese characters (the abstract should specify the target proficiency level, the focal linguistic structure or language skill), and (3) a summary that does not exceed 30 English words or 50 Chinese characters.

Proposal Review and Notification of Results:

- Each proposal will be reviewed anonymously by several invited experts/peer reviewers.
- Notification of proposal acceptance/refusal will be sent out by e-mail on December 10, 2022. Please make sure your email address is correct during the proposal submission.

Registration Upon Acceptance Policies:

- If your proposal is accepted, you will be asked to register for the conference in order to confirm your acceptance into the program. Failure to register will result in the proposal acceptance being rescinded.
- For each accepted multi-authored presentation, all authors must register. Failure to register will result in the proposal acceptance being rescinded.
- More details on registration will be provided in later communication.

Award Categories and Application:

- CLTA supports two conference presentation awards—the Tao-chung Ted Yao Memorial Award and the K-12 Presentation Award. Eligible individuals are welcome to apply for these awards. Please check the award requirements and application deadlines at the CLTA website https://www.clta-us.org/awards/.
- CLTA has several additional non-presentation awards. The award certificate will be issued at the general member meeting at the conference. For detailed information regarding eligibility, procedures, and deadlines, please visit: http://clta-us.org/awards/.

Conference Website and Contact Information

- Conference website: http://clta-us.org/clta-annual-conference/
- All inquiries about the annual meeting should be sent to: AnnualMeetingCLTA@gmail.com. Title of the email should include "CLTA 2023 Annual Conference".
- All K-12 educators who register for the conference and need a PDP certificate, please email the CLTA Headquarters at clta@andrew.cmu.edu.

We look forward to seeing you at the 2023 Annual Conference of CLTA-USA!
