RESUMING STUDY ABROAD IN 2023

We are seeing signs that study abroad might be possible again soon in China and are hoping to run a summer program in Beijing and fall programs in Beijing, Harbin, and Shanghai.

Fall applications are due May 1. Interested students should start an application on the CET website to stay informed on our re-opening plans.

VIRTUAL LANGUAGE TRAINING

Did you know? CET offers one-on-one virtual language training for students, alumni, and professionals. Participants work with CET language instructors in China to establish their learning goals, pace of lessons, and content for instruction. With quarterly enrollment and affordable pricing, this option is a flexible alternative for those looking for targeted instruction while based in the US.
